

Walking the Inner Path

Aries.

Push and probe.

Test the waters.

Stumble across an inner path.

A secret playground, hidden in plain sight.

Taurus

Talking to people.

Talking to spirit.

Asking for this and that.

Learning the language of my culture.

Gemini

Discovering other cultures, other words, and other communication styles.

Many names for the same reality.

Cancer

Diving deep, beneath the words.

Where words cannot reach.

Asking permission to dive even deeper, and climb even higher.

Leo

A construction crew is starting to build a bridge.

From the secret playground, to the day-to-day world of physical reality.

Virgo

Quality control in bridge construction is essential.

Else we will not reach our destination.

The bridge is nearing completion.

Libra

An invitation to the weary traveler.

Helping another to find the bridge.

Offering benches to rest on, and scenic look-out points scattered here and there across the bridge.

Scorpio

Peeking into the waters beneath the bridge.

Noticing the splash of a dolphin's tail, the bulk of a whale visiting the surface, a shark's fin.

Making new friends, new travel companions.

Sagittarius

The bridge at dusk, and a dance band is just tuning up.

We are floating, rather than walking, this part of the journey.

Effortless doing. Effortless being. Full awareness.

Capricorn

Assuming responsibility for the future maintenance of the bridge.

What is the cost, the debt to be paid?

And what is my part of that debt in this lifetime?

Aquarius

Stepping into the unknown is hard work.

I'm hungry, and tired, and cold, and aching.

Do you like my new hiking boots?

Pisces

I can no longer see a clear divide between giving up, and just plain giving.

I am here. Good morning. Welcome to my playground.
