

Astrological Society of Connecticut, Inc.

2026-2027 Program

Thurs., September 17, 2026 Daniel Larkin:
All About Squares! (Hybrid)

Expand your understanding of squares in any chart via a tour of the 12 square sign pairs and a look at orbs, waxing versus waning, and applying versus separating.

Thurs., October 15, 2026 (ASC's 54th Birthday!)
Michael Spremulli: A Practical Introduction to Vibrational Astrology (VA) (Hybrid)

VA spots patterns, planetary combinations and how groups of planets function together as unified signatures to provide greater meaning within the horoscope.

Sat., October 17, 2026 WORKSHOP 12:00 - 5:00 PM Michael Spremulli: Vibrational Astrology in Practice (Hybrid in South Windsor)

A deeper dive into the practical application of VA in attendees' charts provides a clearer understanding of how these methods operate in real-world analysis and can expand an astrologer's toolkit.

Thurs., November 19, 2026 Bill Meridian:
2027 Financial and Long-Term Forecast (Zoom only)

Bill shares observations from his specialties: eclipses and exploring how outer planet cycles affect economic, societal and personal conditions in the future.

Thurs., December 10, 2026 Holiday Party
5:30 PM, Lecture 7:00 PM (no Pre-Lecture)
Panel & Audience: Get Ready For 2027!

(Hybrid) Three ASC astrologers kick off the evening, covering: the 2026 Winter Solstice and Jupiter in Leo and Virgo (Julianne Johnson); the Nodes in Aquarius/Leo and 2027's 5 eclipses (Agneta Borstein); and the year's "hot" degrees in the zodiac (Janet Booth). Group participation ensures this will be a lively discussion with multiple perspectives. Mary Ellen Norton moderates.

Thurs., January 21, 2027 Laura Nalbandian:
Making Saturn Work for You (Zoom only)

Each Saturn transit through the natal houses sets the stage for the next phase of development. Viewing these cycles as interconnected rather than isolated helps us appreciate how Saturn supports our maturation.

Sat., January 23, 2027 WORKSHOP 12:00 - 5:00 PM Laura Nalbandian: What Are Dis-positors and How to Use Them (Zoom only)

The ruling planet of the sign in which a planet is located is its dispositor, a core component of chart synthesis, offering context and depth to natal interpretation. As house rulers, they illuminate a chart's underlying themes.

Thurs., February 18, 2027 Linea Van Horn:
The Other Side of Neptune (Zoom only)

There's much to love and hate about this giant gasbag! What qualities can we develop to best use this enigmatic planet? How will Neptune show his new role in Aries?

Thurs., March 18, 2027 Kathy Medbery:

The Turning of the Ages (Zoom only)

We are living through one of the most significant celestial transitions in human history. Kathy examines past Ages and our potential future in light of what rare planetary combinations—some not seen in millennia—may signal.

Thurs., April 15, 2027 Kathryn L. Silverton:
The Art of Real Estate Timing (Hybrid)

See how to use solar returns, lunar cycles, transits, secondary progressions and solar arcs to find an ideal listing chart for a timely sale and a reasonable return.

Sat., April 17, 2027 WORKSHOP 12:00 - 5:00

PM Kathryn L. Silverton: Medical Astrology (Hybrid, location to be determined)

Discover the roles played by various chart components—signs, planets, houses and aspects—from a medical perspective. Kathryn covers the rules of surgery timing and offers examples of how surgery dates are chosen.

Thurs., May 20, 2027 Joseph Crane:

Learning from Western Traditions (Hybrid)

Joseph explores features from past traditions that deserve to be adapted to modern astrology, such as rulership, dispositors, house systems and depictions, modes, qualities, lunar nodes, aspects and reception.

All events are on Zoom. Workshop locations vary. Hybrid lectures are held at Pitkin Community Center, 30 Greenfield St., Wethersfield, CT.
